Dennis, thanks for forwarding this message. That is very very positive. Good! I'm on the calendar to talk with you tomorrow in the morning. One thing that is important to know is who at the State will be taking the lead with EPA and NOAA to operationalize the intentions and game plan. It's been a while since I've talked to Jennifer Wigal, but at that time she was not clear whether that was her role or the role of some other person. It would be good to know that. I recall you mentioning my and the attorneys working with Larry Knudsen on the legal authorities, but I don't imagine he would be the overall State lead on all the milestones and final resubmittal.

Also, any news on how the State's (Richard's discussions) went with the delegation? Important for us to understand so that we can shape what we want to offer/need to offer to delegation and when vis-à-vis our upcoming decision.

We can talk tomorrow. Thanks.

Christine and all:

Will Stelle prepared a short summary of our call with Nina Bell yesterday. I am passing it along. It was a very positive call and bodes well for our continued work with Oregon to improve their forest practices.
